A3P's member company Australian Paper has this week re-launched their environmental and social commitments to the Australian Public by releasing Environs: Our commitment to sustainability. The facts & figures.

A3P CEO Mr Neil Fisher said, 'I am delighted to see Australian Paper has been so transparent in this publication of its sustainability performance. This is consistent with the companies' commitment to positive engagement with all interested stakeholders'

Australian Paper's Executive General Manager, Mr Jim Henneberry states in the opening pages: 'Sustainability for Australian Paper is largely about 'balance'. Sustainable development is most often defined as 'meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations.'

Environs: Our commitment to sustainability. The facts & Figures focuses on 8 key areas: energy, water, recycling, air emissions, employees, community, customers and fibre sourcing.

Mr Fisher said, 'Not only does the report show their commitment to continuous improvement into the future it also demonstrates their performance over time by reporting on the past 7 years of Australian Paper's operations'

Australian Paper is already a signatory to A3P's Sustainability Plan which identifies 22 performance indicators for sustainability. To view full plan please click below.
